BONUS Secret #5a: Five Elements in Business

- BONUS Office Feng Shui (2 slides) is a helpful bulleted list with external and internal factors for Feng Shui consideration.
- BONUS Element Personality (41 slides): While we all strive for personal balance, we may have too much or too little of the elemental qualities of personality. Each “element personality” is identified by behavioral, physiological, and physical attributes along with imbalance indicators. It is critical to support core, elemental personalities during Feng Shui evaluations. Example: even if a holistic Feng Shui suggests a “still water” remedy in the bedroom, painting the walls blue may create severe depression. This lesson helps you balance inner Feng Shui with outer remedies.
- BONUS Personal Element Adjustment “Secret Cures” 17 slides: Grandmaster Lin Yun shares how to adjust personal imbalances for each of the Five-Element personality types. Example: if you have too much wood in your personality, remedies are provided to help reduce impatience.
